1. Since the Chinese Communist entry into the Korean war in October 1951, Manchuria has become a replacement base for the various field armies, with the following provinces as bases for each: Liaosi for the 1 Field Army (FA); Sungkiang for the 2 FA; Kirin for the 3 FA; and Liaotung, Heilungkiang and Jehol for the 4 FA and Northeast Military Area troops.
2. Troops also use these areas for rest and reorganization. Units of a given field army may return to their original garrison area for replacements or may receive them in one of the replacement areas.
3. Occasionally troops of the 1 FA regroup in another area.
